ANTHONY ALBANESE MP
PRIME MINISTER OF AUSTRALIA

MEDIA RELEASE

MEETING OF NATIONAL CABINET

National Cabinet met in Sydney today to discuss COVID-19 settings and key joint- the upcoming Jobs and Skills Summit.

Acting Chief Medical Officer Professor Michael Kidd provided an update on the pa and outlined strategies for combating potential COVID-19 waves.

First Ministers reinforced their commitment to continued collaboration between commonwealth, state and territory governments in managing the COVID-19 pande

National Cabinet agreed to reduce the isolation periods for COVID-19 positive cases from seven to five following a positive test, with the following caveats:

1. This would apply to people with no symptoms at five days.
2. Seven days isolation remains for workers in high risk setting including aged care, disability care, those providing care in the home.

This is a proportionate response at this point in the pandemic.

These changes will come into effect from Friday 9 September, with the Pandemic Leave Disaster Payment (PLDP) eligibility to reflect the changed isolation periods, effective from the same date.

National Cabinet also agreed to remove the mandatory wearing of masks on domestic flights. This change will also come into effect from Friday 9 September.

Ahead of the Jobs and Skills Summit, First Ministers discussed ongoing workforce challenges impacting Australia's economy and employers' access to skilled workers. They agreed on the vision statement and guiding principles for a new National Skills Agreement.

First Ministers discussed the essential role of Early Childhood Education and Care as part of the education system and as a powerful lever for increasing participation in the workforce.

The National Cabinet agreed on the importance of delivering nationally significant transmission projects, and supporting regional communities and workforces to capture opportunities emerging from Australia's transition to a net zero emissions economy.

First Ministers agreed:

3. Commence work on a new National Skills Agreement in place from 1 January 2023, informed by the vision statement and guiding principles.
4. State and Territory Energy Ministers will work towards implementing reforms to accelerate the delivery of transmission projects. Regional communities will benefit from the investment, employment and training opportunities presented by the transition.
5. Work together on a long-term vision for ECEC to better support parents' workforce participation and deliver improved early learning and child development outcomes as a national priority.
6. That Education and Early Years Ministers will work together to identify priorities where governments can collaborate to support better outcomes across the sector, with a particular focus on Early Childhood Education and Care workforce shortages.

and with an update on progress to be provided to National Cabinet by the end of 2022.

7. Housing affordability issues will be discussed at the next in person meeting of National Cabinet.
8. The National Cabinet also agreed to task the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency to accelerate skills and qualification recognition in key sectors.

The National Cabinet remains committed to working together on national priorities and will meet again next month.

Hi s 22

Thanks for sending the below through.

We confirm that the Prime Minister's attendance to the Qantas Gala Dinner on 31 March 2023 in Sydney. Appreciate if at the moment we could confirm attendance for 8 people (hoping to refine the travelling party once the team is back in Australia) for the following:

1. Prime Minister
2. Prime Minister's guest (possible)
3. 1x PMO Advancer
4. 1x PMO Media
5. 1x PMO Digital
6. 3x AFP Close Protection

I have also attached a template that my team uses to organise security and logistics for the Prime Minister's visit and would be grateful if you could complete and return to us at your earliest convenience, so that we may commence planning and staff allocations (any section that does not apply to your event can be marked "n/a" in the template). We would be most grateful if the attached could also include an event order/run sheet which outlines the Prime Minister's participation (speaking requirements, timing, etc...), and a list of confirmed attendees. Closer to the date, an advancer from our office will liaise with you to organise a security walkthrough on-site with the AFP.

Please feel free to reach out if there is anything else that you may require.

Hey s 22

Thanks for the chat this afternoon – I have had a chat with a few of the teams about questions and can advise the following:

- Team are comfortable with the visuals and direction of event
- s 47F
- Yes Volunteers and special guests are a great suggestion, which makes the event less business/politician-heavy
- If Qantas will look to invite any of the Yes spokespeople s 47F just a heads up would be good for our team's visibility
- Happy to work with you on this point before we go to the wider team – but I need the PM wheels up at 12.10 to keep him to his program. Would we be able to juggle the run sheet in the attached a bit to provide a natural break so that I can get him out and the panel can continue? At the latest, PM will need to be in the car by 11.55 (including grabs, photos and media), otherwise I will have delays at the other end when he lands (but will continue to work the draft logistics from my end). When PM departs we can defer to Minister Burney as the most senior Government Minister there.

Happy to chat, and hoping not to cause too much trouble.

Hi ^{s 22}

Confirming that the PM is pleased to accept Qantas' invitation to launch the company's decals and livery in support of the Voice.

I have attached a template that my team uses to organise security and logistics for the engagement and would be grateful if you could complete and return to us at your earliest convenience (please return in Word document format), so that we may commence planning (any section that does not apply to your event can be marked "n/a" in the template). We would appreciate if the attached also included a draft run sheet of the event and outline of the Prime Minister's engagement (speaking requirements, session timings, etc...) We also require a list of attendees closer to the event. Once returned, my team will commence their planning.

In the days leading up to the event, an advancer from our office will liaise with you to organise an on-site walkthrough with yourself, AFP and security and events personnel from the venue.

Please reach out if there is anything further that you may need.

Hi s 22

Thanks for your time on the phone.

The run sheet looks great – as discussed, I was wondering if the proposed run times in the attached would be able to work? Most of the Cabinet have been in the House for 12 hours by the time the dinner starts, and some will be arriving from a Cabinet Committee meeting, so slightly earlier meals would be appreciated. The event can continue until 21.30 but I was hoping to provide a natural break in the evening around 20.30.

Also confirming that Tim Gartrell will accompany the PM to the dinner.

Let me know if the attached works from your end.

OFFICIAL

Hi ^{s 22}

Thanks for sending through the below, and for your time on the phone this afternoon.

As discussed, grateful please for confirmation on current run sheet timings and if there is any opportunity for formalities to have concluded by 09.15 – I had originally programmed morning for PM to be wheels up by 09.30 for return to Parliament House in Canberra and rescheduled morning meetings.

I have cc'd in ^{s 22} from our office who will advance this event from our office and liaise with you for final detail confirmation and to organise an on-site walkthrough in the days leading up to the event.

Let me know if there is anything else that you need.

Regards

Hi ^{s 22}

Thanks for coming back to me and apologies for the copy/paste on my end with the timings scheduled for the 14 August Welcome Home event.

Based on the below I will schedule engagement for 08.15 – 09.15, and try to reschedule all the morning meetings the PM will have in Canberra when he returns to Parliament for the Sitting Day.

Regards

OFFICIAL

Hi ^{s 22}

Thanks for your invitation to attend the welcome home ceremony for the Australian Paralympic Team on 11 September 2024, in Sydney.

Confirming that I am placing this event in the Prime Minister's forward program at Qantas Jet Base for 07.00 on 11 September 2024.

I have attached a template that my team uses to plan the Prime Minister's logistics, and would be grateful if you could complete and return to us at your earliest convenience (please return in Word document format), so that we may commence planning (any section that does not apply to your event can be marked "n/a"). Appreciate if we could also receive a list of attendees closer to the date, or at least VIPs that the Prime Minister should be made aware are attending. In the lead up to the event, an advancer from my team - will liaise with you to confirm final details and to organise an on-site walkthrough with AFP.

While this event is some time out, I would be grateful if you could advise of an approximate time engagement that you think it will go for (currently allocating PM engagement from 07.00 until 08.15) – reason being is that this event will be on a Parliamentary Sitting day so I will look to have the PM up from Canberra, but will also need to roughly know how long in the morning this might run for so that I can organise leave from the House for him.

A few other disclosures please:

1. Given the long-dated nature of this event, I need to advise that unforeseen circumstances may impact the Prime Minister's program and our ability to attend – while we seek to avoid any such uncertainty, I do need to flag this as a possible risk.
2. We ask that you please keep the Prime Minister's attendance on a strict need-to-know basis, and not publicly advertise it to ensure no adverse changes in the security landscape given this event is somewhat into the future.
3. If there are any media requirements, or advice that is sought, would you kindly email: ^{s 22} @pm.gov.au which is the group inbox of the PM's Press Office, and until a press secretary is allocated to this event, will be able to provide advice about when and or if to alert.

Looking forward to working with you on making this a great event, let me know if there is anything else that you need.

Regards
