

The Workplace Gender and Equality Act would benefit from including other genders and updating its data collection to include those genders beyond just man and woman. Please expand the definition of gender to include transgender women, transgender men, non binary, gender fluid and gender diverse people.